and students respond with attitudes that vary from futile resistance to positive anticipation.

With autumn come activities which develop into the magic of goblins, royalty, and gladiators.

Inhospitable winds and chilling temperatures extend an ironic invitation to an excitement that is recurrent with each winter.

While the white outdoors slows to frozen stillness,

Cross Country

The 1975 cross country team finished its season with a fine 53 wins-12 losses record. The team started fast, winning thirteen in a row. Malabar won the Five-Way meet, finishing fourth in the Ontario Relays, second in our own Invitational, second in the Sectional meet and seventh in the district at Toledo.

The highlight of the season was winning the Cardinal Conference meet for the second straight year in a very convincing manner. The Falcons were coached by Gordon Shipley and were led all season by Rob Pritchard and Jim Loesch and backed up by Alan Koser, Ron Tucker, and Lloyd Goettl.

With Rob Pritchard, Ron Tucker, Jim Lichtenberger and Rob Allen back from the top seven, next season should again be a good one for the Falcons.

Cardinal Conference Champs

Girls' Volleyball

The 1975-76 Girls' Volleyball Team compiled a record of 12-5. Coached by Frank Bartholow, the girls won the Sectional Championship with victories over Madison and Galion. In the District they beat Bowling Green before losing a hard-fought game to Celina. The team brought home the trophy for runner-up in the District.

At the Fall Sports Banquet, Captain Jane Botkin was named Most Valuable Player and Offensive Player of the Year. Kay Hall and Tonya Miller were named Co-Defensive Players of the year. Returning veterans will be Julie Miller and Patti Shrilla.

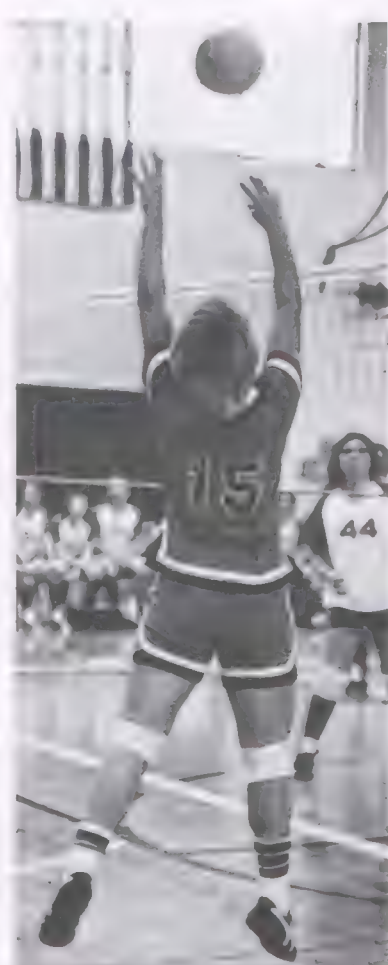

SEATED: Tonya Miller, Julie Miller, Jane Botkin, Patti Shrilla, Diane Overly, Kay Hall. STANDING: Frank Bartholow, Coach; Kathy Oliveri, Patty Stratman, Sheryl Kalish, Beth Schamadan.

Junior Varsity: Debbie Barr, Lori Queen, Ann Schmidt, Patty Stratman, Lynn Pendleton, Sheryl Kalish, Ann Van Meter.

Golf

The 1975 Fighting Falcon golf team again added a touch of variety to the list of fall sports at Malabar.

Coached by Don DeBaltzo and led by Seniors Alex McDonald, Ken Kline, Jeff Mosier, and Mike Bagley, the team finished with an 8-6-1 record.

At the Fall Sports Banquet awards went to Mike Bagley, proving to be Most Valuable, and Alex McDonald, Most Improved.

Girls' Tennis

The 1975 Girls' Tennis Team finished the season with an impressive 8-3 record. Four matches were played in the State Tournament. Malabar advanced to the semi-finals, against Fremont, by virtue of victory in district competition. The team also finished second in the NOCA Tournament; Wooster won by one point over Malabar.

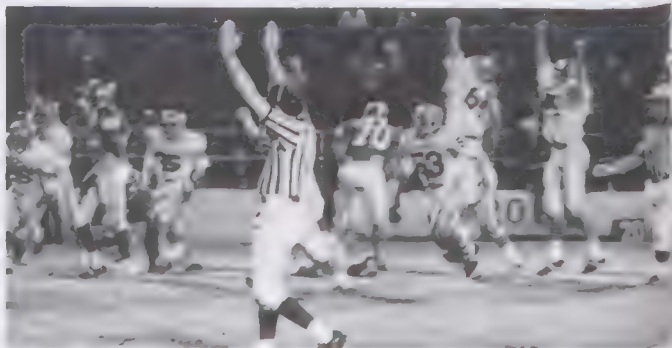

This year's MVP award went to senior Cindy Culler, who was the undefeated number four player in singles. Most-Improved awards went to seniors Suzy Waud and Cindy Bard. The Girls' Tennis merits much support while it continues to make Malabar a respected name in Tennis.

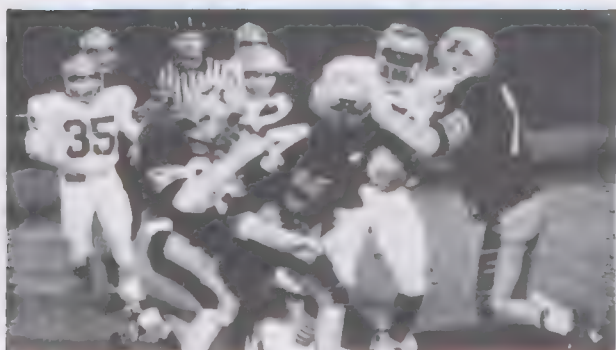

KNEELING: Laurie Romano, Carol Bur, Cindy Culler, Andi Nowak, Sarah Bently, Polly Subich, Elaine Scurci, Lynn Bently. STANDING: Manager, Janet Pival; Ann Graham, Darcy Bur, Kristie Robinson, Jane Neumann, Judy Dignan, Tracy Tuttle, Suzy Waud, Cindy Bard; Coach, Debbie Henry.

Football

A talented, spirited group of ballplayers led the '75 Falcons through an exciting campaign and a serious challenge for the conference title.

The critics were writing Malabar off after a 20-7 humiliation at the hands of Senior High in the second game of the season. The Falcons, however, silenced the skeptics. Winning three of their next four games, they found themselves in a battle for the Cardinal Conference championship. That battle ended in a muddy quagmire at rainy New Philadelphia with a heartbreaking 2-0 loss. Late rallies by the opponents led to two more tough defeats.

Suddenly threatened with a possible losing record, the Falcons exploded at Clear Fork for an exhilarating 33-0 win and a 5-5 season record.

Highlights of the year included shutout victories at Lexington and Coshocton and a 20-8 Homecoming win over Ashland. Runningback Vic Mack ended his career at Malabar by setting the school career rushing record with 1782 yards. Darrick Beaufoord's four TD receptions set another school mark and Bruce Johnson got his name in the record book with eleven straight extra points. There were several team records established also. Seniors Mack, Beaufoord, and Andy Tighe were given 1st team conference honors and quarterback Chris Driggs was named the team's MVP.

The '75 Football Falcons were something for Malabar to be proud of and established themselves as a force to be reckoned with in the Cardinal Conference.

Wrestling

The Falcon grapplers finished with a season record of 5-2-1. They received strong support from seniors Dave Bricker, Eric Driskell, Dan Cho, Bob Milum, and Wally Marshall. Bright moments came when Buddy Bricker broke the school's 145 pound quick pin record and Dan Cho broke the school's record for the most take-downs. Five wrestlers, Dan Cho, Dave Bricker, Eric Driskell, Andy Vrabel, and Ed Brownlee were eligible for the district in the State Wrestling Tournament.

Basketball

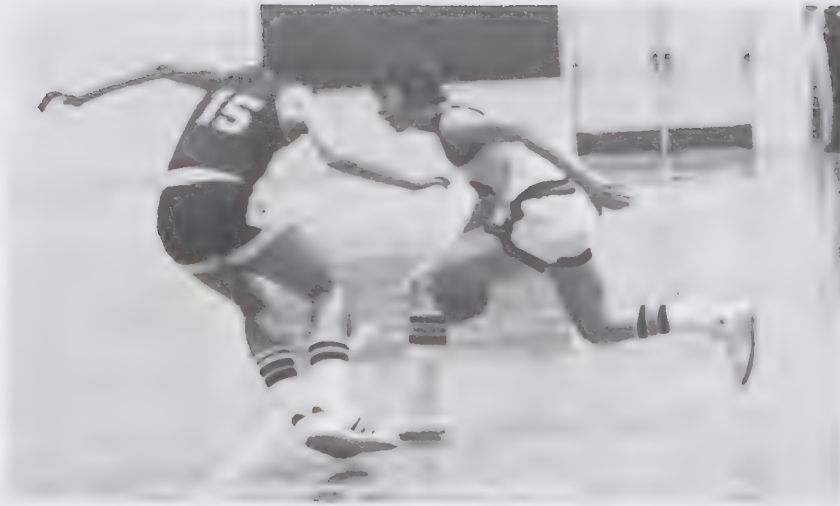

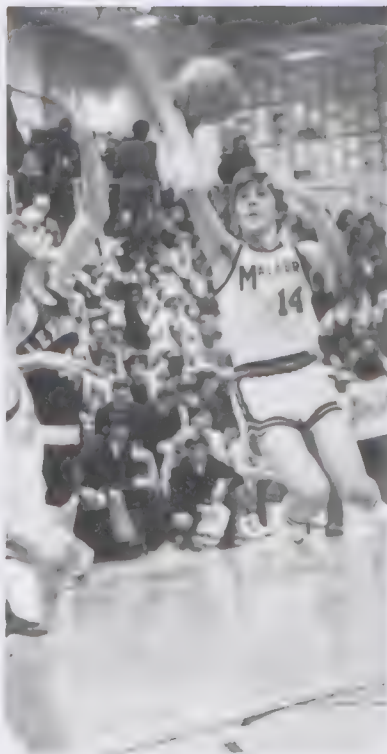

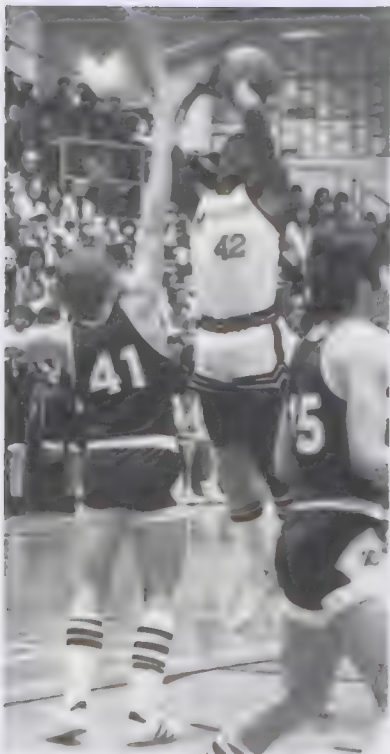

This year the Falcons finished with an 8-12 record. Especially important to the team were wins over St. Peter's and Mansfield Senior for the first time in Malabar's history. By defeating Sandusky in a thrilling contest, they advanced to the semi-finals of the Sectional Tournament, where they fell to Bellevue. The school record for the most rebounds in an individual game was broken by Jim Sauter with 29 against Clearfork. Mickey Scodova set a new field goal percentage record of 85% against New Philadelphia. Most Valuable Player honors went to Dan Jackson, offensive, and Bill Jones, defensive. Jones also received the Coaches Award. Sauter was named Best Rebounder and Mike Dropsey received the Best Foul Shooter and Most Take-Charges Awards.

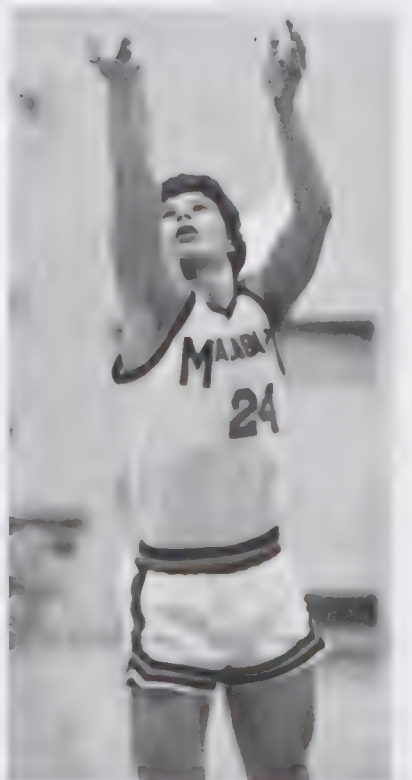

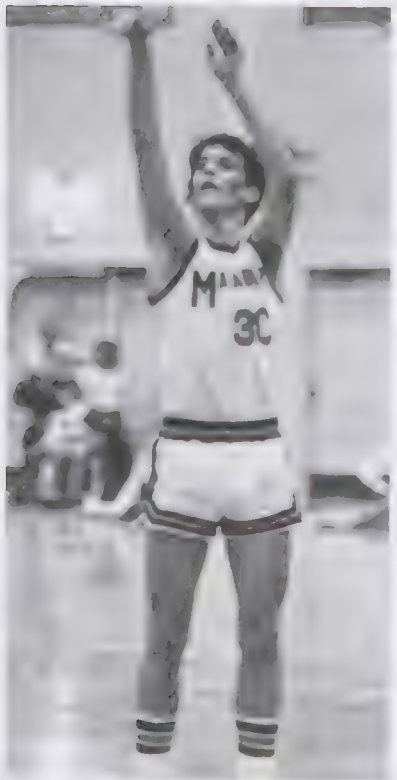

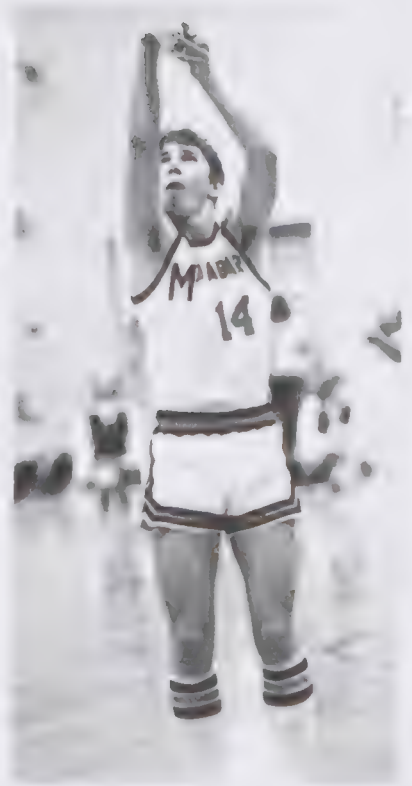

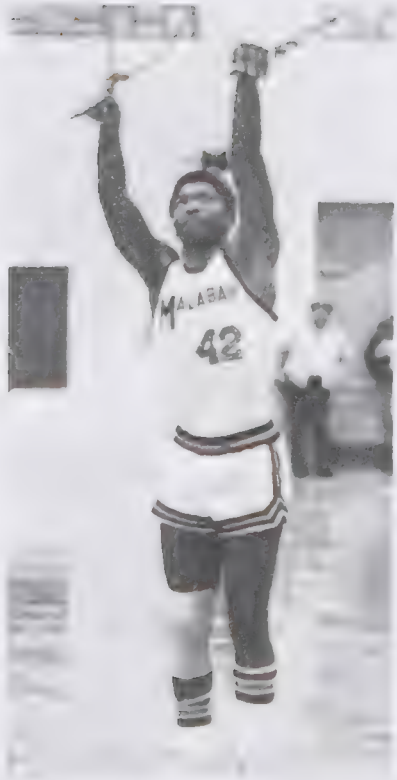

The leadership by our seniors Dan Jackson, Jim Sauter, Bill Keefer, Mike Dropsey, Bill Jones, and Tony Hullinger this year was tremendous and will be missed next season.

Girl's Basketball

This year the Varsity Girl's Basketball team had a record of 4-9 with the Reserve team playing 4-6. Co-captains Jane Botkin and Tonya Miller led the varsity team on to victories over Lexington and Madison, and over Mansfield Senior twice. Botkin set every major offensive record and was named MVP. Lisa Smith had the best free throw percentage and sophomore Ann Van Meter took down the most rebounds.

1st ROW: Lisa Smith, Jane Botkin, Tonya Miller, Sue Dungan, Dianne Overley, Kay Hall. 2nd ROW: Patti Shrilla, Ann Van Meter, Kim Knight, Martha Heskett, Helen Porter.

Swimming

The swim team was small this year, but the leadership from seniors Jim Loesch, Pete Thompson, Richard Young, Jeff McKee, and Mitchell Fox helped to continue Malabar's winning tradition in this sport. The team tied for first in the Port Clinton Relays and finished third in the Malabar Relays. Malabar finished fourteenth in the State Swim Meet with its only entrant, team captain Jim Loesch, finishing fourth in the two hundred yard freestyle and fifth in the five hundred yard freestyle. Another highlight of the season included Leslie Mackey breaking the school diving record.

Softball

This year the girl's softball team had a 3-3 record. They began by losing 2 in a row and wound up winning 2 in a row. The team batting average was .423. Senior Jane Botkin finished with a .603 personal batting average.

SITTING: Marie Nierras, Wanda Denning, Kay Hall, Jane Botkin, Sue Finefrock, Tammy Upham. STANDING: Deb Barr, Lori Tucker, Tonya Miller, Karen Vetter, Sara Schneider, Frank Bartholow, Coach. MISSING: Ann Ellison.

Baseball

With the loss of nine ballplayers to graduation, the success of the 1976 Falcon baseball team was in doubt. But a group of inexperienced athletes combined solid offense and surprising pitching to achieve one of the best records in Malabar baseball history. The team finished 17-12 overall, and was 6-6 in the Cardinal Conference. The Falcons finished with a fine .292 team batting average.

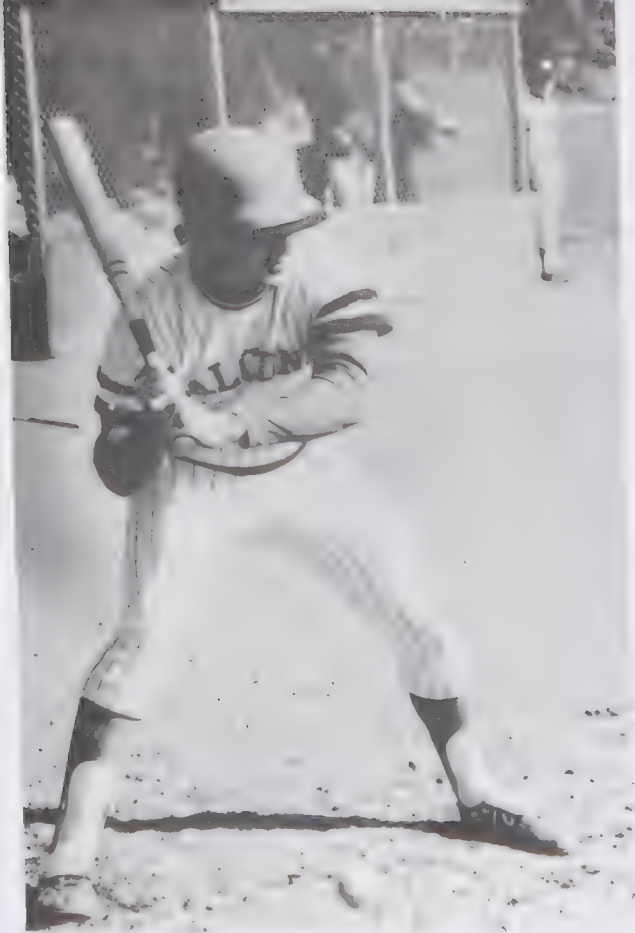

Sophomore Dave Wareham had the best pitching ERA and most wins in the city. Bruce Scodova, who also pitched effectively, led the team in hitting and received the MVP award.

Next year Coach Dave Roberts and some talented returning let-termen will try for the team's third straight winning season.

Tennis

The Fighting Falcon tennis team again proved to be one of Malabar's strongest.

This year's victories include an impressive sweep of all five singles divisions by Bill Radler, Ed Morris, Bud Vetter, Steve Vivian, and Bill Jones in the Cardinal Conference Tourney, as well as a second place finish by David Schlossman and Matt Jones at first doubles. The Falcons also enjoyed a victory at the annual Ashland Chevy Tournament, compiling a record twenty of twenty-one possible team points.

Several individuals on the team stand out as the truly fine tennis players as well as team leaders. Bill Radler, voted most valuable player, Ed Morris, and Bud Vetter advanced to the Northwest District tournament. These same individuals were instrumental in winning many of the dual matches as all compiled remarkable individual records.

Track

The Falcon track team continued its winning tradition in 1976, putting together a year which included the sectional championship and a second place finish at the Ontario Relays.

Senior Bill Keefer was outstanding in the 100 yard dash and 220 yard dash until he pulled a hamstring to damage the team's Cardinal Conference hopes. Keefer piled up the most points in running events and received the MVP award. Rob Pritchard was also impressive, setting the school's mile record, and Ron Tucker tied the Malabar 440 record. Both men return next year. Senior Jim Loesch, a half miler, was another vital member of the squad. Alan Koser and Curtis Hall were team captains.

Malabar's mile relay team of Tony Petty, Lash Parker, Curtis Hall, and Ron Tucker placed ninth in the state while breaking the school record in the event.

Although disappointed with not winning the conference, the team will have enough talent back next year for another shot at it.

Girls' Track

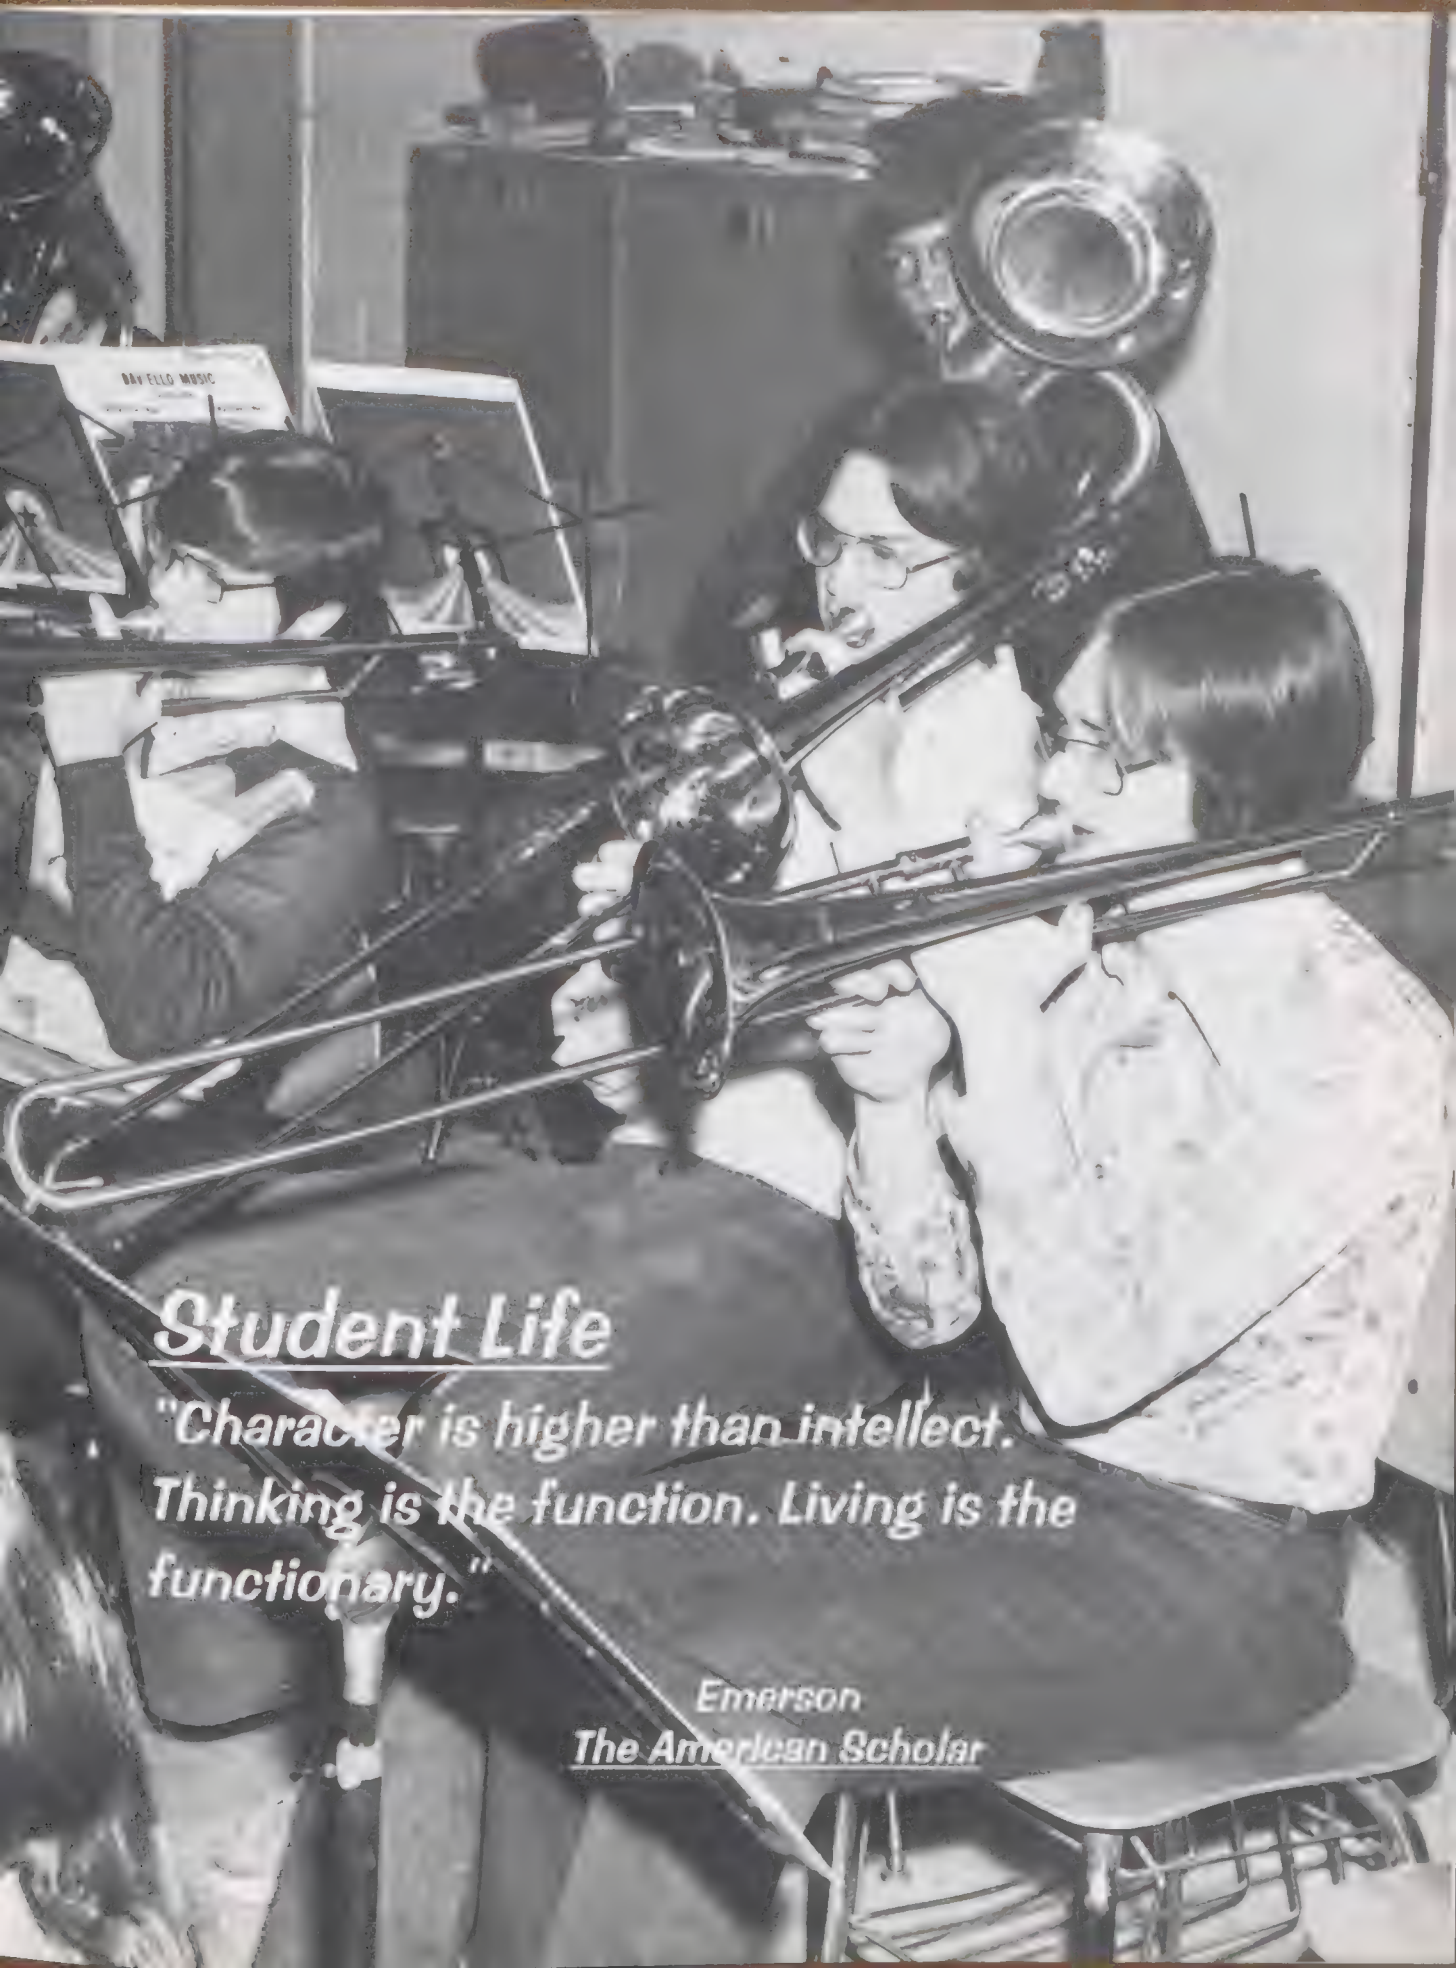

This year the girl's track team finished with an impressive 7-2 record. Winning a first in the Malabar Invitational was the 440 yd. relay team of Elaine Scurci, Carol Hursh, Amy Orson, and Mary Hamilton. Mary also won the 100 yd. dash and the 220 yd. run in the Invitational and the Sectional meets. Carol received a first in the Sectional long jump. Mary was the season's Most Valuable Player, and Darcy Black and Ann Van Meter tied for Most Improved. Janny Nauman was named team captain.

Les Femmes

Miss America 1976

LES FEMMES, the most photogenic girls at Malabar, has become a TALON tradition. Selections have been made from senior photographs by a celebrity or a fraternity group. An effort is always made to keep the choices secret until the yearbook is presented.

Miss America 1976, Tawny Godin, cooperatively consented to make this year's selections.

Acknowledgements

Appreciation is extended to all those who had a part in the production of the 1976 TALON: Malabar students, faculty, and administration; Smuckers House of Portraits and Buell Kraft Studio; and Judy Brody and John Fitty - Judy for such great pictures and John for such great copy. Finally, I wish to thank Mr. Hailey for the great amount of energy and expertise which he put into this book.

Thanks

Tom Dutton

In Memory

Steve Sennish, an amiable member of the Class of 1976, met an untimely death in the spring of 1975.

His class regrets its loss and recognizes the contribution of his life.
